Fast track your business with Ibec membership

Ibec
For Irish Business

Join an unparalleled business community, ensure your interests are represented and benefit from our employer relations services, insights and networking opportunities.

Fast track your business with Ibec membership

> Ibec's hugely experienced and professional team provides an invaluable suite of services to our business and is the most influential voice for business with government and key stakeholders in Ireland and overseas.

Brian Donaldson
CEO, The Maxol Group

Ibec membership benefits

A powerful ecosystem of experts, mutual support and direct services

Fast track your business with Ibec membership

Lobbying

Influence policy and regulation at international, national and sectoral level

Knowledge Sharing

Member collaboration and knowledge sharing across key business and industry issues through our trade associations and networks

ER/HR Support

Specialist advice, support and representation in the areas of employment law, industrial relations, human resources and health and safety

Networking & Events

Peer networking and best practice sharing through Ibec's programme of member events, webinars and forums

Insights & Analysis

The inside track from Ibec experts on the latest economic, regulatory, industry and employer relations developments

Learning & Development

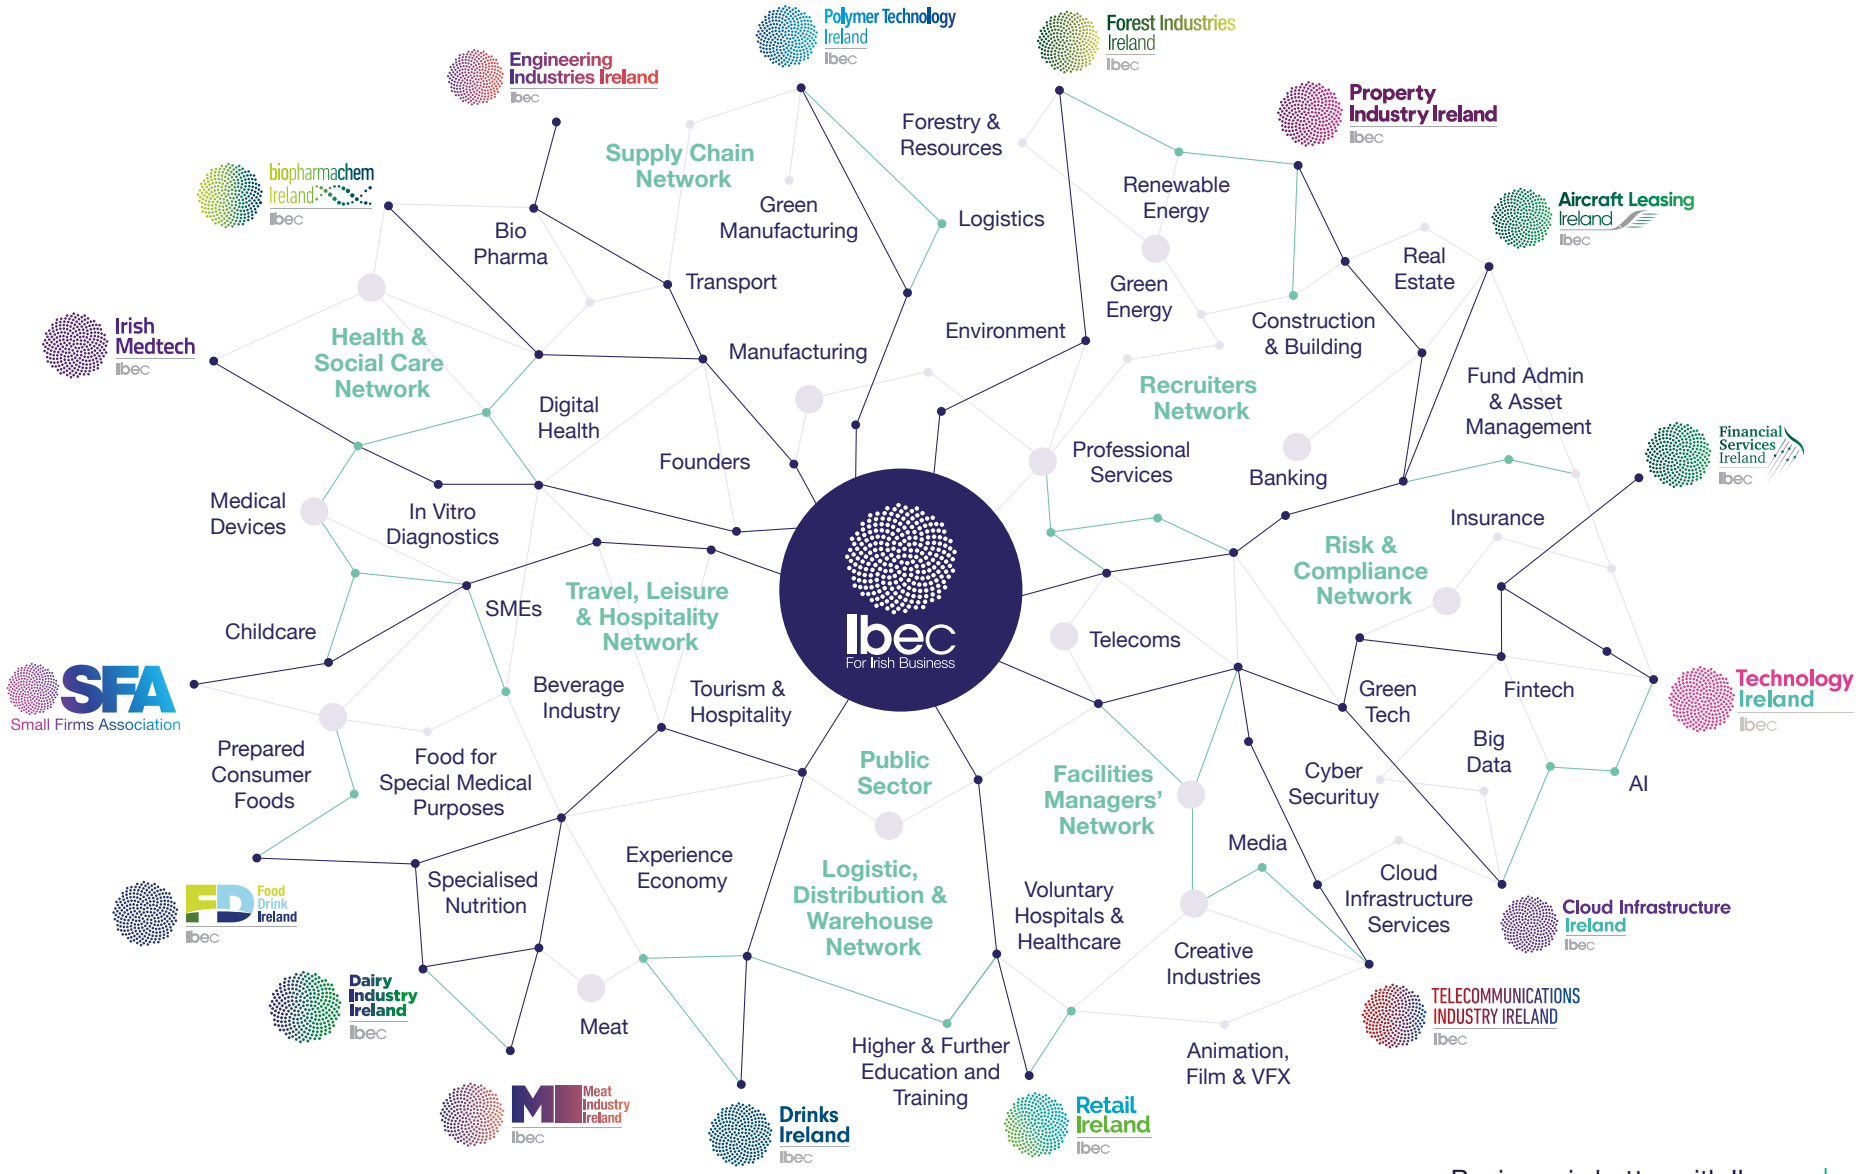

Professional development through the Ibec Academy and government funded industry-led training programmes through our trade associations

Influence, Knowledge, Networking

Ibec represents all sectors of the Irish economy through its 39 Trade Associations, and Business Networks.

- Trade Associations
- Ibec Business Networks
- Key Industry Sectors

Learn more

Fast track your business with Ibec membership

Lobbying and advocacy - the voice of Irish business

Fast track your business with Ibec membership

Influence the business environment to work for your business and sector

Participate in Ibec national, regional and industry policy committees* reinforcing your company's influence in shaping policies and regulations

Access high-level stakeholder engagement & facilitation at national and EU level, through our Brussels office, and extensive international network

Benefit from Ibec's leadership and direction on key strategic issues and regulations

Gain privileged access to a wider industry network, research institutions, technology centres, state agencies and government stakeholders across key government departments

Attend exclusive member briefings on policy and regulatory developments, economic outlook, business insights & trends

 View Ibec's national, regional and industry policy working groups

Trusted and comprehensive employer relations services

Learn more

Fast track your business with Ibec membership

Super charge your HR department with access to our leading employee relations and HR management experts

Advice and support on employee relations, industrial relations and HR policies and procedures

Advice on occupational safety, health and welfare at work including compensation and liability insurance issues

Representation at the Workplace Relations Commission and Labour Court as part of membership

Representation in industrial relations disputes

Access to Ibec's online HRM Guide: The A-Z of employee lifecycle management providing implementation guidelines offering practical applications of employment law along with sample policies, procedures, contracts, forms and checklists

Events, webinars and podcasts on latest HR and IR news on the latest employment law & HR news, case law and human resource trends and thought leadership

Research reports on employment trends

Insights, knowledge and networking

Learn more

Fast track your business with Ibec membership

Access to top level networks and resources across our membership ecosystem

Benefit from member only research, best practice learning, innovation and industry thought leadership

Support on the application of industry regulation, and updates on upcoming industry policy developments and trends

Access to a year-long programme of member and industry events, including flagship conferences, industry award programmes and networking events

Stay informed with our exclusive member briefings, webinars and podcasts on business and industry related topics

Learning & development programmes

Upskill your staff with premium professional development programmes.

Fast track your business with Ibec membership

Ibec Academy

- CPD accredited certificate and diploma courses, short courses
- Covers a wide range of evolving business and management topics, while also addressing the trends shaping the future of work
- Customised accredited programmes available
- Preferential rates for Ibec members

Ibec Academy

Visit Ibec Academy

Funded industry-led learning through our Trade Associations

- 11 Skillnet Networks, 5 Apprenticeships and Springboard projects offering programmes that address the technical and non-technical skills required for their industry
- Programmes support the key issues impacting industry
- Customised accredited programmes available
- Government funded

Skillnet Ireland · Irish Medtech Association SPRINGBOARD · Apprenticeships Ibec

Learn more

Hear from our members

"Ibec is a key partner, offering relevant advice and knowledge, and providing opportunities to network with other companies for best practices.

Joanne Somers
Managing Director, Celtic Linen

"We have relied on Ibec's professional team for many years, finding their experience, knowledge, and expertise invaluable to our business.

Pat Collins
Managing Director, Fireblock

"Ibec's deep understanding of the business environment helps us steer our strategy effectively. Their extensive services and local and international influence helps us protect and grow our business, making them a trusted partner.

Mark McGreevy
CCO, John Sisk and Son Holdings

Fast track your business with Ibec membership

Ibec by the numbers

10 Offices

Ibec has six offices in Cork, Donegal, Dublin, Galway, Limerick, Waterford, one in Brussels and three training centres in Dublin, Athlone, and Letterkenny.

30+ Research Reports

Research reports providing key economic and industry insights

Largest lobbying group

Ibec is Ireland's largest and most influential lobbying organisation

39 Trade Associations

Ibec has a thriving ecosystem of over 39 trade associations and networks that cover a wide range of industry sectors.

300 Staff

Over 300 dedicated and highly trained staff

430+ Lobbying returns

Lobbying returns made on behalf of our members over the last 12 months

Most trusted HR practice

Ireland's most trusted Employment Law and HR, IR, OHS Practice

16k People developed

Leaders, managers, and professionals developed by the Ibec Academy, Ibec Skillnets, Apprenticeship and Springboard projects

1,632 Cases

The number of third-party cases managed by Ibec's Employer Relations Division in one year

20k+ Attended Events

Events that connect for Ibec members

45k Calls

Industrial Relations and Human Resources calls to our Employer Relations Teams

Ibec membership is for all businesses - home grown, multinational, big or small.

We cater for crucial roles within organisations, giving them access to comprehensive supports to help them succeed and prosper. This includes your Board members, C-suite, public and corporate affairs, policy and regulatory affairs and HR practitioners and Environmental and OHS officers.

Together we ensure a vibrant future for Irish industry.

Contact the membership team:

membership@ibec.ie
+353 (01) 605 1500

ibec.ie/join