

Ireland's financial services sector at a glance

The domestic and international financial services sector employs over 105,000 people, up 60% on 2004

The GDP of the sector is €19.3 billion

Ireland is a recognised global fintech hub

14 of the top 15 global aircraft lessors are located here

Ireland is the 3rd largest funds domicile in the world

Ireland services over €5.2 trillion of assets under administration

The insurance sector holds over €300 billion of assets in Ireland and invests €35 billion in Irish infrastructure

17 of the top 20 global banks are based in Ireland

11 of the top 15 insurance companies have a presence in Ireland

Over 60%

of the world's leased commercial aircraft are owned or managed from Ireland

In 2019, the sector contributed €2.47 billion in corporate tax, 23% of Ireland's total corporate tax income

Ireland is a global centre of excellence for listings of

Green and Environment, Social & Governance (ESG) Bonds

Insurance companies in Ireland service 25 million customers in 110 countries

Following graduation, 10% of working third level graduates are employed in the sector

The sector's exports are worth €11 billion annually of financial services companies are located in Dublin, with 37% based outside the capital

63%

Regional financial services operations employ almost 20% of the sector's workforce

20%

Over one third of financial services businesses are regionally based

In 1987, the IFSC in Dublin's Docklands employed fewer than 100. In 2020, the IFS sector employs over 44,000 across the entire country

